

CONFLICT RESOLUTION NETWORK

Sergeant George Aranda, D.P.D.

Presents

Negotiating on the Turf: Mediation with Gangs

Tuesday, November 16, 2010

6:30 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

Refreshments and Networking at 6:30 p.m.

Presentation at 7:00 p.m.

Southern Methodist University

Plano Campus – Building 3

5228 Tennyson Parkway

Plano, Texas

MORE INFORMATION

(469) 426-1348 OR WWW.SWCRN.COM

Non-Members & Guests - $10.00

Sergeant George Aranda brings over 17 years of law enforcement experience with the City of Dallas and the greater community. This includes 10 years of experience in working with the drug and gang units of the Dallas Police Department, followed by 5 years of working with the FBI Task Force. His specialized training includes Toxic Leadership, Human Trafficking, Racial Profiling/INS Enforcement, Investigative Interviewing & Interrogation, Recruiting of Minorities into Law Enforcement, Cartel and Border Security Threats, Electronic Surveillance, Promotion and Assessment Training, and Management in Law Enforcement. He has received the 2008 NALEO Leadership Award, U.S. Department of Justice Award, and the N.L.P.O.A. 2004 Presidential Achievement Award. Sgt. Aranda's community involvement includes Hispanic Leadership Forum, Navidad En El Barrio, Latino Peace Officers Association, LULAC and the Greater Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. His professional experience and leadership have made a positive impact on Dallas.

Conflict Resolution Network is a nonprofit corporation that promotes and encourages the use of third party neutrals in conciliation, facilitation, mediation, and arbitration to resolve disputes and conflicts; to disseminate information to the public about dispute resolution models; to enhance communication among third-party neutrals, to promote standards for ethics and practice for third-party neutrals, and to promote, conduct, and sponsor continuing education for third-party neutrals.