Presented by
CONFLICT RESOLUTION NETWORK

Gary Robinson is the former Deputy General Counsel of Tenet Healthcare Corporation, a Fortune 200 company and owner of over fifty acute care hospitals. As Deputy General Counsel, Gary oversaw the management of Tenet's litigation, including all of its medical malpractice, employment and business litigation. Prior to joining Tenet, Gary was a partner and chair of the labor and employment department at Mullen & Henzell, LLP in Santa Barbara, California. He has over 25 years experience in labor and employment law and civil litigation.

In conjunction with his role as Director of the Dispute Resolution program, Gary is also a senior conflict management consultant with Strategic Resolutions Group, LLC. He consults with numerous hospitals and healthcare organizations on labor relations, risk management, medical staff relations and conflict management. He has participated in over 100 mediations either as the attorney of record, the party, or the mediator.
